

MORNING PRAYER
5/17 /10

OPENING SENTENCES

O Lord, open my lips.
And my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

You created the day and the night, O God; you set the sun and the moon in their places;
you set the limits of the earth; you made summer and winter. Psalm 74:16, 17

MORNING PSALM – Psalm 63:1-8

O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.

Therefore, I have gazed upon you in your holy place, that I might behold your power and your glory.

For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; my lips shall give your praise.

So will I bless you as long as I live and lift up my hands in your name.

My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness,
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,

when I remember you in my bed, and meditate on you in the night watches.

For you have been my helper, and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.

My soul clings to you; your right hand holds me fast.
